29 U.S.C. § 216(b)
COLLECTIVE ACTION &
FED. R. CIV. P. 23 CLASS ACTION

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff JOSE PANORA (hereinafter referred to as Plaintiff), on behalf of himself and others similarly situated, by and through his attorney, Troy Law, PLLC, hereby brings this complaint against Defendants DEENORA CORP d/b/a Dee's; and DEE'S BRICK OVEN PIZZA, INC. d/b/a Dee's; DEERAN ARABIAN a/k/a Dee Arabian, and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action is brought by the Plaintiff JOSE PANORA, on behalf of herself as well as other employees similarly situated, against the Defendants for alleged violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, (FLSA) 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. and New York Labor Law (NYLL), arising from Defendants' various willfully and unlawful employment policies, patterns and practices.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendants have willfully and intentionally committed widespread violations of the FLSA and NYLL by engaging in pattern and practice of failing to pay its employees, including Plaintiff, minimum wage for each hour worked and overtime compensation for all hours worked over forty (40) each workweek.

3. Plaintiff alleges pursuant to the FLSA, that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid minimum wage and unpaid overtime wages, (2) liquidated damages, (3) prejudgment and post-judgement interest; and or (4) attorney's fees and cost

4. Plaintiff further alleges pursuant to NYLL § 650 et seq. and 12 New York Codes, Rules and Regulations § 146 (NYCRR) that he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (1) unpaid minimum wage compensation and unpaid overtime compensation, (2) unpaid spread-of-hours premium, (3) up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Plaintiff for Defendants' failure to provide a Time of Hire Notice detailing rates of pay and payday, (4) up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per Plaintiff for Defendants' failure to provide a paystub that accurately and truthfully lists employee's hours along with the employee's name, employer's name, employer's address and telephone number, employee's rate or rates of pay, any deductions made from employee's wages, any allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, and the employee's gross and net wages for each pay day, (5) liquidated damages equal to the sum of unpaid minimum wage, unpaid "spread of hours" premium, unpaid overtime in the amount of twenty five percent under NYLL § 190 et seq., § 650 et seq., and one hundred percent after April 9, 2011 under NY Wage Theft Prevention Act, (6) 9% simple prejudgment interest provided by NYLL, (7) post-judgment interest, and (8) attorney's fees and costs

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This Court has original federal question jurisdiction over this controversy under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and has supplemental jurisdiction over the NYLL claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

6. Venue is proper in the pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c), because Defendants conduct business in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

PLAINTIFF

7. From on or about 1995 to July 13, 2019, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was employed by Defendants to work for Defendants at Dee's located at 107-23 Metropolitan Ave, Forest Hills, NY 11375.

8. Initially, in 1995 Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was hired as a dishwasher.

9. Later on, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was promoted as a salad person.

10. Soon after, before 2001, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was promoted as a chef.

and the regulations thereunder, and is jointly and severally liable with Dee's brick Oven Pizza Inc d/b/a Dee's

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Defendants Constitute an Enterprise

21. Upon information and belief, Corporate Defendants DEENORA CORP d/b/a Dee's; and DEE'S BRICK OVEN PIZZA, INC d/b/a Dee's are joint employers of Plaintiff and constitute an enterprise as the term is defined by 29 USC §203(r) insofar as they are indistinguishable from one another, being owned by the same owners, operating under the same doing business name in the same location, and as such have indistinguishable and unified operation and/or common control for a common business purpose, and are co-owned by the same partners.

22. At all relevant times, the work performed by Plaintiff was directly essential to the business operated by DEENORA CORP d/b/a Dee's; and DEE'S BRICK OVEN PIZZA, INC.

Wage and Hour Claims

23. There are around thirty five (35) employees at the pizzeria at any one time.

24. Defendants committed the following alleged acts knowingly, intentionally and willfully against the Plaintiff, the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, and the Class.

25. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and similarly situated employees at least the New York minimum wage for each hour worked.

26. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff his lawful overtime compensation of one and one-half times (1.5x) their regular rate of pay for all hours worked over forty (40) in a given workweek.

27. While employed by Defendants, Plaintiff was not exempt under federal and state laws requiring employers to pay employees overtime.

28. Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records of Plaintiff's hours and wages.

29. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to keep full and accurate records in order to mitigate liability for their wage violations. Defendants never furnished any notice of their use of tip credit.

30. At all relevant times, Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and similarly situated employees with Time of Hire Notice reflecting true rates of pay and payday as well as paystub that lists employee's name, employer's name, employer's address and telephone number, employee's rate or rates of pay, any deductions made from employee's wages, any allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, and the employee's gross and net wages for each pay day.

31. Defendants knew that the nonpayment of overtime pay and New York's "spread of hours" premium for every day in which Plaintiff worked over ten (10) hours would financially injure Plaintiff and similarly situated employees and violate state and federal laws.

32. Defendants did not post the required New York State Department of Labor posters regarding minimum wage pay rates, overtime pay, tip credit, and pay day.

Plaintiff JOSE PANORA

33. From on or about January 01, 1995 to July 13, 2019, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was employed by Defendants to work as a Chef for Defendants at Dee's located at 107-23 Metropolitan Ave, Forest Hills, NY 11375.

34. From in or around 2006 to April 10, 2018, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA's regular work schedule ran from:

- a. 11:00 to 22:00 from Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for eleven (11) hours a day for three (3) days and thirty three (33) hours per week; and
- b. 11:00 to 23:00 on Friday and Saturday for twelve (12) hours a day for two (2) days and twenty four (24) hours per week; and
- c. 11:00 to 21:30 on Sundays for ten and a half (10.5) hours per week.

35. From 2006 to April 10, 2018, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA worked for a total of sixty seven and a half (67.5) hours per week.

36. Thereafter, from April 11, 2018 to July 13, 2019, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA's regular work schedule ran from:

- a. 11:00 to 22:00 from Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for eleven (11) hours a day for three (3) days and thirty three (33) hours per week; and
- b. 11:00 to 23:00 on Friday and Saturday for twelve (12) hours a day for two (2) days and twenty four (24) hours per week; and

37. From April 11, 2018 to July 13, 2019, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA worked for a total of fifty six (56) hours per day for days when he worked five (5) days a week for 2/3 of the time.

38. From April 11, 2018 to July 13, 2019, for roughly 1/3 of the time, however, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA would come in on Sundays to help out for an additional ten and a half (10.5) hours.

39. From April 11, 2018 to July 13, 2019, on those weeks, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA would work for sixty seven and a half (67.5) hours per week.

40. For those weeks where Plaintiff JOSE PANORA worked six days instead of five days, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was not paid any additional money.

41. Specifically, from roughly 2011 to April 09, 2018, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was paid at a flat weekly rate of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars in check and cash, with One Thousand Dollars ($1000) in cash and Three Hundred Dollars ($300) in check.

42. Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was not paid any overtime at all relevant times.

43. From roughly 2011 to 2015, JOSE PANORA received paystub which shows that he received a rate of Eighteen Dollars ($18) an hour for sixty six (66) hours each week only.

44. In reality, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA would receive Eighteen Dollars ($18 )an hour for sixty six (66) hours and not any overtime, including for hours which he worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

45. Thereafter from 2015 to April 09, 2018, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA received paystubs that he was paid at a rate of Thirty Two Dollars and Seventy Five Cents ($32.75) for Forty (40) hours only.

46. However, Plaintiff continued to work sixty seven and a half (67.5) hours.

47. In reality, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA's pay remained the same.

48. Thereafter, from April 10, 2018 to July 13, 2019, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was paid at a flat weekly rate of Nine Hundred Fifty Dollars ($950) in cash and Three Hundred Ninety Dollars ($390) in check.

49. At all relevant times, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA did not have a fixed time for lunch or for dinner.

50. At all relevant times, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was not paid overtime pay for overtime work.

51. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was not given a statement with his weekly payment reflecting employee's name, employer's name, employer's address and telephone number, employee's rate or rates of pay, any deductions made from employee's wages, any allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, and the employee's gross and net wages for each pay day in Spanish Plaintiff's native language.

52. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was not compensated at least at one-and-one-half his promised hourly wage for all hours worked above forty (40) in each workweek.

53. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff JOSE PANORA was not compensated for New York's "spread of hours" premium for shifts that lasted longer than ten (10) hours at his promised rate

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

54. Plaintiff brings this action individually and as class representative individually and on behalf of all other and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by the Defendants for up to the last three (3) years, through entry of judgment in this case (the "Collective Action Period") and whom were not compensated at their promised hourly rate for all hours worked and at one and one half times their promised work for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week (the "Collective Action Members").

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

55. Plaintiff brings his NYLL claims pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Fed. R. Civ. P.") Rule 23, on behalf of all non-exempt personnel employed by Defendants on or after the date that is six years before the filing of the Complaint in this case as defined herein (the "Class Period").

56. All said persons, including Plaintiff, are referred to herein as the “Class.”

57. The Class members are readily ascertainable. The number and identity of the Class members are determinable from the records of Defendants. The hours assigned and worked, the positions held, and the rate of pay for each Class Member is also determinable from Defendants’ records. For purpose of notice and other purposes related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from Defendants. Notice can be provided by means permissible under said Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

Numerosity

58. The proposed Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, and the disposition of their claims as a class will benefit the parties and the Court. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts on which the calculation of the number is presently within the sole control of the Defendants, upon information and belief, there are more than forty (40) members of the class.

Commonality

59. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members, including:

- a. Whether Defendant employed Plaintiff and the Class within the meaning of the New York law;
- b. Whether Plaintiff and Class members are promised and not paid at their promised hourly wage;
- c. Whether Plaintiff and Class members are not paid at least the hourly minimum wage for each hour worked;
- d. Whether Plaintiff and Class members are entitled to and paid overtime at their promised hourly wage under the New York Labor Law;

e. Whether Defendants maintained a policy, pattern and/or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class spread-of-hours pay as required by the NYLL;

f. Whether Defendants maintained a policy, pattern and/or practice of failing to provide requisite statutory meal periods;

g. Whether Defendants provided a Time of Hire Notice detailing rates of pay and payday at the start of Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class's start of employment and/or timely thereafter;

h. Whether Defendants provided paystubs detailing the rates of pay and credits taken towards the minimum wage to Plaintiff and the Rule 23 class on each payday; and

i. At what common rate, or rates subject to common method of calculation was and is Defendants required to pay the Class members for their work.

Typicality

60. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those claims which could be alleged by any member of the Class, and the relief sought is typical of the relief that would be sought by each member of the Class in separate actions. All the Class members were subject to the same corporate practices of Defendants, as alleged herein, of failing to pay minimum wage or overtime compensation. Defendants' corporate-wide policies and practices affected all Class members similarly, and Defendants benefitted from the same type of unfair and/or wrongful acts as to each Class member. Plaintiff and other Class members sustained similar losses, injuries and damages arising from the same unlawful policies, practices and procedures.

Adequacy

61. Plaintiff is able to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and have no interests antagonistic to the Class. Plaintiff is represented by attorneys who are experienced and competent in representing Plaintiffs in both class action and wage-and-hour employment litigation cases.

Superiority

62. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, particularly in the context of wage-and-hour litigation where individual Class members lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit against corporate defendants. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently and without the unnecessary duplication of efforts and expenses that numerous individual actions engender. Because the losses, injuries and damages suffered by each of the individual Class members are small in the sense pertinent to a class action analysis, the expenses and burden of individual litigation would make it extremely difficult or impossible for the individual Class members to redress the wrongs done to them. Further, important public interests will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. The adjudication of individual litigation claims would result in a great expenditure of Court and public resources; however, treating the claims as a class action would result in a significant saving of these costs. The prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the Class would create a risk of inconsistent and/or varying adjudications with respect to the individual members of the Class, establishing incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants and resulting in the impairment of Class members' rights and the disposition of their interests through actions to which they were not parties. The issues in this action can be decided by means of common, class-wide proof. In addition, if appropriate, the Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this action as a class action.

63. Upon information and belief, Defendants and other employers throughout the state violate the New York Labor Law. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing claims because doing so can harm their employment, future employment, and future efforts to secure employment. Class actions provide class members who are not named in the complaint a degree of anonymity which allows for the vindication of their rights while eliminating or reducing these risks.

STATEMENT OF CLAIMS

COUNT I.

[Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act—Failure to Pay Minimum Wage Brought on behalf of the Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective]

64. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

65. At all relevant times, Defendants had a policy and practice of refusing to pay Plaintiff in full, and the similarly situated collective action members, for some or all of the hours they worked.

66. The FLSA provides that any employer who violates the provisions of 29 U.S.C. § 206 shall be liable to the employees affected in the amount of their unpaid wage, and in an additional equal amount as liquidated damages.

67. Defendants knowingly and willfully disregarded the provisions of the FLSA as evidenced by failing to compensate Plaintiff and Collective Class Members at the statutory minimum wage when they knew or should have known such was due and that failing to do so would financially injure Plaintiff and Collective Action members.

COUNT III.
[Violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act—Failure to Pay Overtime Brought on behalf of the Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective]

73. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

74. The FLSA provides that no employer engaged in commerce shall employ a covered employee for a work week longer than forty (40) hours unless such employee receives compensation for employment in excess of forty (40) hours at a rate not less than one and one-half times the regular rate at which he is employed, or one and one-half times the minimum wage, whichever is greater. 29 U.S.C. § 207(a).

75. The FLSA provides that any employer who violates the provisions of 29 U.S.C. § 207 shall be liable to the employees affected in the amount of their unpaid overtime compensation, and in an additional equal amount as liquidated damages. 29 USC § 216(b).

76. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective their overtime pay violated the FLSA.

77. At all relevant times, Defendants had, and continue to have, a policy of practice of refusing to pay overtime compensation at the statutory rate of time and a half to Plaintiff and Collective Action Members for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, which violated and continues to violate the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq., including 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a)(1) and 215(a).

78. The FLSA and supporting regulations required employers to notify employees of employment law requires employers to notify employment law requirements. 29 C.F.R. § 516.4.

79. Defendants willfully failed to notify Plaintiff and FLSA Collective of the requirements of the employment laws in order to facilitate their exploitation of Plaintiff' and FLSA Collectives' labor.

80. Defendants knowingly and willfully disregarded the provisions of the FLSA as evidenced by their failure to compensate Plaintiff and Collective Class Members the statutory overtime rate of time and one half for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) per week when they knew or should have known such was due and that failing to do so would financially injure Plaintiff and Collective Action members.

COUNT IV.
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Failure to Pay Overtime
Brought on behalf of Plaintiff and Rule 23 Class]

81. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

82. An employer who fails to pay the minimum wage shall be liable, in addition to the amount of any underpayments, for liquidated damages equal to twenty-five percent (25%) before April 9, 2011 and one hundred percent (100%) thereafter under NY Wage Theft Prevention Act, and interest.

83. At all relevant times, Defendants had a policy and practice of refusing to pay the overtime compensation to Plaintiff at one and one-half times the hourly rate the Plaintiff and the class are entitled to.

84. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff his overtime pay violated the NYLL.

85. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff was not in good faith.

COUNT V.
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Spread of Time Pay
Brought on behalf of Plaintiff and Rule 23 Class]

86. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

87. The NYLL requires employers to pay an extra hour's pay for every day that an employee works an interval in excess of ten hours pursuant to NYLL §§ 190, et seq., and §§ 650, et seq., and New York State Department of Labor regulations § 146-1.6.

88. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff spread-of-hours pay was not in good faith.

COUNT VI.
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Failure to Provide Meal Periods
Brought on behalf of Plaintiff and the Rule 23 Class]

89. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

90. The NYLL requires that employees provide: a noon day meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for employees who work a shift of more than six hours extending over the noon day meal period from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.; an additional meal period between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. of at least twenty (20) minutes for employees whose shift started before 11 a.m. and continues later than 7 p.m.; and/or a forty-five (45) minute meal period at a time midway between the beginning and end of the shift for employees whose shift lasts more than six hours and starts between 1 p.m. and 6 a.m. NYLL § 162.

91. Defendants failed to provide meal periods required by NYLL § 162 for every day that Plaintiff worked.

92. Though the Department of Labor commissioner may permit a shorter time to be fixed for meal periods than hereinbefore provided, such permit must be in writing and be kept conspicuously posted in the main entrance of the establishment. No such permit is posted.

93. Defendants' failure to provide the meal periods required by NYLL § 162 was not in good faith.

COUNT VII.
[Violation of New York Labor Law—Failure to Keep Records
Brought on behalf of Plaintiff and Rule 23 Class]

94. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

95. Defendants did not maintain, establish and preserve Plaintiff's weekly payroll records for a period of not less than six years, as required by NYCRR § 146-2.1.

96. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff has sustained damages including loss of earning, in an amount to be established at trial, liquidated damages, prejudgment interest, costs and attorneys' fee, pursuant to the state law.

97. Upon information and belief, Defendants failed to maintain adequate and accurate written records of actual hours worked and true wages earned by Plaintiff in order to facilitate their exploitation of Plaintiff's labor.

98. Defendants' failure to maintain adequate and accurate written records of actual hours worked and true wages earned by Plaintiff were not in good faith.

COUNT VIII.

[Violation of New York Labor Law—Failure to Provide Time of Hire Wage Notice
Brought on behalf of Plaintiff and Rule 23 Class]

99. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

100. The NYLL and supporting regulations require employers to provide written notice of the rate or rates of pay and the basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as a part of minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; the telephone number of the employer. NYLL §195-1(a).

101. Defendants intentionally failed to provide notice to employees in violation of New York Labor Law § 195, which requires all employers to provide written notice in the employee's primary language about the terms and conditions of employment related to rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime on their or his first day of employment.

102. Defendants not only did not provide notice to each employee at Time of Hire, but failed to provide notice to Plaintiff even after the fact.

103. Due to Defendants' violations of New York Labor Law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, $50 for each workday that the violation occurred or continued to occur, up to $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to New York Labor Law. N.Y. Lab. Law §198(1-b).

COUNT IX.

Brought on behalf of Plaintiff and Rule 23 Class]

104. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

105. The NYLL and supporting regulations require employers to provide detailed paystub information to employees every payday. NYLL § 195-1(d).

106. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the New York Labor Law with respect to compensation of each Plaintiff, and did not provide the paystub on or after each Plaintiffs' payday.

107. Due to Defendants' violations of New York Labor Law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, $250 for each workday of the violation, up to $5,000 for each Plaintiff together with costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to New York Labor Law. N.Y. Lab. Law §198(1-d).

COUNT X.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, and on the behalf of the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs and Rule 23 Class, respectfully requests that this Court enter a judgment providing the following relief:

a) Authorizing Plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have up through the extent allowable under the statute of limitations and including the date of issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of his right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied premium overtime wages;

- b) Certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to FLSA;
- c) Issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiff and their counsel to represent the Collective Action Members;
- d) A declaratory judgment that the practices complained of herein are unlawful under FLSA and New York Labor Law;
